

Center for Teaching & Assessment of Learning

The Center for Teaching & Assessment of Learning fosters an inclusive culture of evidence-based teaching and learning across the university by inspiring effective teaching and assessment using high-impact strategies, tools, and collaborations.

We are available to discuss teaching and learning in your courses, in your department or in your college, and to work with you to achieve the learning goals and outcomes that are important to you and your students. Our services include:

- Confidential, one-on-one consultations
- Programs/workshops
- Consultations on the development of courses and programs
- Guidance on the assessment of learning in courses and programs
- Advice on grant proposals with an education component
